

Being an amateur radio operator for 47 years,I am completely against the possible use of BPL over the power lines. Some tests by the American Radio Relay League have indicated the interference from this type of transmission will greatly affect the use of our amateur radio bands, especially from 1.7 to 80 Mhz. Please do not let this happen. This is not a good this for aateur radio. Thank you, Donald R Weiss